Speaker: Gary Pahl

Gary Pahl of Pahl's Market will be this year's annual meeting featured speaker.

The Pahl's sixth-generation family farm started in the river bottoms of Bloomington, Minnesota in the early 1900s and in the late 1970s moved south of the river to Apple Valley, Minnesota. Starting as a business selling homegrown produce out of the back of a truck, evolved into Pahl's Market. As business grew, Paul's Market built a pole building in the early 1980s and later built their first greenhouse in 1996. Today, Pahl's Market is still famous for its fresh homegrown produce and is also well known for their garden center.

Brought to you by the Dakota-Rice County Corn & Soybean Growers and their checkoffs.
