Speaker: Kent Thiesse

Kent Thiesse is a Farm Management Analyst based in south central Minnesota. He recently retired after a 20-year career as Vice President and Chief Ag Loan Officer for MinnStar Bank in Lake Crystal, MN. Prior to that time, Thiesse served as an Extension Educator in farm management and marketing with the University of Minnesota (U of M) Extension Service. He has both a masters and bachelor's degree in agriculture from the U of M. He writes a weekly column titled "FOCUS ON AG" that's distributed to Midwest agriculture publications, websites and to a weekly e-mail list. He is also a frequent speaker on farm management topics, and serves as the coordinator for the feature forums at FARMFEST each year.

Brought to you by the Mower County Corn & Soybean Growers and their checkoffs.
